Phase F – Migration Planning

by Roger Evernden

Phase F – Migration Planning – is about how we move from the Baseline to the Target Architectures by finalizing a detailed Implementation and Migration Plan. In this poster we summarize key points about this Phase.

Phase F is where we create an Implementation and Migration Plan in co-operation with portfolio and project managers.

Finalize the Architecture Roadmap

Finalize the supporting Implementation and Migration Plan, making sure that it is coordinated with the enterprise change management approach and the overall change portfolio

Ensure the value and cost of work packages and Transition Architectures is understood by stakeholders

Inputs

The key inputs are the incomplete Architecture Roadmap and Implementation and Migration Plan from Phase E

Reference Materials

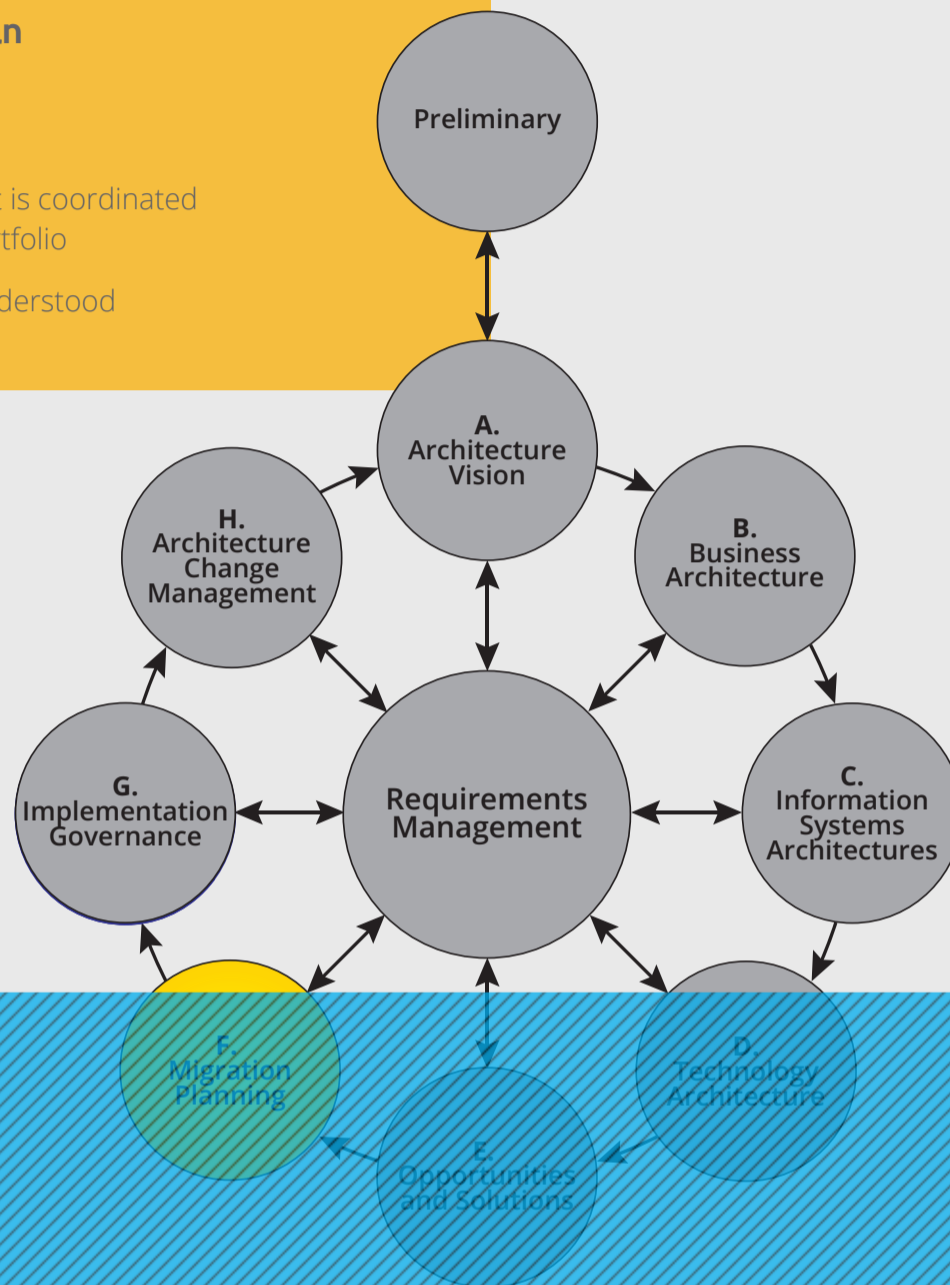

- Any useful architecture reference materials (often from external sources)

Non-Architectural Inputs

- The Request for Architecture Work, Capability Assessment and Communications Plan

Architectural Inputs

- The Organizational Model for EA: Governance models and frameworks; Tailored Architecture Framework; Statement of Architecture Work and Architecture Vision
- Populated Architecture Repository, including reusable building blocks
- Draft Architecture Definition Document and Architecture Requirements Specification
- Architecture Roadmap and Implementation and Migration Plan (G-I)

Steps

The level of detail addressed in the Implementation and Migration Plan is determined by the goals of the overall architecture effort.

All steps are implemented iteratively.

- Confirm Management Framework Interactions for the Implementation and Migration Plan
- Assign a Business Value to Each Work Package
- Estimate Resource Requirements, Project Timings and Availability/Delivery Vehicle
- Prioritize the Migration Projects through the Conduct of a Cost/Benefit Assessment and Risk Validation
